

Present Simple for DAILY ROUTINE

By @abcenglishlevels

Warm-up

- What is your daily routine like?
- Would you like to change anything in your lifestyle?

Read the text. Pay attention to the verbs in bold.

Lucas Jones is a 44-year-old miner. He leaves his house at 5.30 to go to work. His wife makes his lunch. He works for 8 hours. He doesn't go to the surface to have lunch. Miners have their meals in the mine.

Study the rules.

	I/you/we/they	he/she/it
+	V They run every day.	V+s/V+es She runs every day.
-	Don't + V You don't run every day.	Doesn't + V He doesn't run every day.
?	Do ...? Do you run every day? No, I don't. Yes, I do.	Does ...? Does he run every day? No, he doesn't. Yes, he does.

Remember

Add -es if the word ends in -sh, -s, -ch, -x, -z (finishes)

In verbs ending in a consonant + -y, change -y into -ies (cries)

Use:

to describe everyday habits or repeated actions	He usually leaves for work at 5.30. We don't eat breakfast.
to talk about present facts	Birds don't laugh. They make windows from glass.

with the time markers	always, regularly, often I always get up at 8 am. every day, once a week, twice a month He plays tennis twice a month.
-----------------------	--

Speak!

- Are you more an early bird or a night owl? How do you usually feel in the morning?
- What time do you wake up on weekdays? Do you get up as soon as you wake up?
- What do you do right after you get up?
- When do you check your messages and social media?
- How long does it take you to get ready for work?
